FROM LAURIE AND LINDA

REHOBOTH CULINARY ADVENTURE !

A sip.....a bite.....and a chance to meet the owners or chefs at some wonderful restaurants. Embark on this 3-hour culinary adventure through historic Rehoboth and enjoy delicious food paired with local wines, beers, or signature cocktails at five of the best eating establishments—some of which have been nominated for The James Beard Award for culinary excellence.

You'll also visit speciality food shops, beachy outdoor venues such as The Back Porch known for its French food, or a(MUSE) which is famous for its "molecular" gastronomy, and Mariachi's to savor Salvadoran and Mexican dishes.

This tour includes a delicious lunch ranging from soup to salad to small tasting plates. You'll also get some great take-home items and coupons. The event takes place on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays with each day featuring different restaurants.

In addition, your tour guide will let you in on some of the fascinating restaurant lore of Rehoboth Beach. It's a great way to try several top restaurants in town before returning the next time with friends for a complete gourmet meal.

The event starts at 1:00 p.m. and allows a maximum of 16 people in order to keep it intimate. It only requires about 30 minutes of actual walking which is done in small increments. The minimum age is 21 since alcohol will be served. And the cost is well worth it at only $45.

This all adds up to a wonderful dining experience and LOTS of FUN!!!
