What Is Your Home Value?

We've made it easier to find out!

Like the rest of the country, our local housing market has been on a wild ride these last few years. As a homeowner, you may be wondering how your home value stacks up to the houses down the street, to your tax-assessed value, and to other online estimates.

We know you can't even consider selling your home until you know what it's worth in today's market. So, we've introduced a great new service where you can check the online home value that is being reported on national real estate websites. If you haven't checked your home value recently, we invite you to do so by visiting www.orgegroup.smarthomeprice.com.

If you are interested in a more customized home value that accounts for the unique features of your home, we can also come out to your property and complete a customized home valuation at NO obligation to you.

We are proud to be your neighborhood real estate specialists. If you'd like to discuss your home value, market trends or see if we know any buyers interested in your home, call or email us today.

Kind Regards,
Ana Orge & Laura Orge
