LEADING REAL ESTATE COMPANIES® of THE WORLD®

Did you know...

Lyon Real Estate is affiliated with the Leading Real Estate Companies of the World® network? This powerful network has over 500 affiliated brokers, over 140,000 sales associates in the U.S. and is in 30 other countries. These brokers are the highest producing and highest quality brokers in the business and I can refer clients through the network and know that they will get expert real estate assistance whether they are moving across town, across the country, or even the globe.

When you, or someone you know needs individualized, personal service for selling or purchasing a new home, or maybe an investment property or second home, please call me. I will assess their needs and work with our relocation division to handpick the best real estate company to accomplish their goals, ensure a smooth transaction, and I will remain available to assist along the way.

The highest honor I can receive is a personal business referral from you. I can help your friends or family with a real estate need no matter where they live.
