Shorewood$560,000

217 Shorewood Way, Jupiter, FL

Enjoy soaring ceilings and transom windows in this brightly lit, Mark Miller home. With poured concrete construction and extra reinforcement rods, this home is built to last. Beautiful brand new wood grain tile floors make this home look like a model. In addition, plantation shutters, crown molding and lots of extra details adds elegance to the home. Both bathrooms were beautifully remodeled in 2016, and the kitchen was remodeled w/ wood cabinetry, granite and stainless appliances in 2010. The butted glass windows in master bathroom and kitchen, along with the transom windows add light to this cheery home. The sparkling pool was recently resurfaced with Diamond Brite in addition to the wood ceiling which was added in 2010. Pool includes child safety fence and screen enclosure.
